about the festival

The Rose and Shamrock festival is held annually on the third Saturday of February and features a registered Irish Dance Competition, a registered bagpiping competition, and Celtic music, entertainers, vendors, and food.

The festival is organized by a small group of volunteers who established a non-profit entity with the mission of celebrating Celtic Heritage in the area. Our goal is to provide free admission to the event every year through generous donations from corporate and individual sponsors.

We welcome additional committee members, volunteers and sponsors for the festival in 2020. Check out the website to see how you can get involved for next year or email us for more information.

festival rules

No printed materials, including political material aimed at any person or party, may be distributed during the festival without prior approval by The Lancaster Celtic Arts Foundation Inc.

Do not carry alcoholic beverages outside of the establishments where these beverages are served. It is against the law to do so.

All official venues follow regulations established by the Pennsylvania Liquor Control Board. Proper ID must be presented upon request.

Only authorized personnel are permitted on the entertainment stages, behind these stages and on any scaffold.

Please help keep our official venues clean by using the garbage receptacles.

Marriott: Flyers attached to the walls and/or costumes hung on railings, etc... are not allowed and will be removed. Dance Competitors wishing to advertise costumes for sale must hang the costumes in the appointed "Dress Room."

festival wishlist

We have big dreams to grow our festival. Please take a look at our wishlist to see if there is anywhere you may be able to help in the coming years.

Sabo School of Irish Dance is under the direction of champion dancer and certified Irish dance teacher, Jacqueline Sabo-Metzinger, TCRG. We are located in Orwigsburg PA, a rural area 30 minutes north of Reading PA and 30 minutes west of Allentown PA. Sabo School accepts dancers ages 4 through adult, beginners through champions! Dancers may take classes for fun, performance, and/or competition.

Sabo School of Irish Dance is unique because it is a pay-as-you-go program, our dance families find this appealing. Our program focuses on technique, strength, endurance, and just plain fun! More importantly, we are 100% committed to the goals of our dancers, whatever those goals may be. You'll find no pressure to compete at Sabo School, unless that is what you want to do. We are passionate about Irish dance and we want to help you find where Irish dance fits into your life. Wherever that may be, we will be there with you every step of the way!

The Paloma School of Irish Dance is a beautiful and unique patchwork of families, many adoptive and foster, who all come together to make one big tapestry of a family. In honor of this we (and a few of our other friends from the Irish dance community) have come together to sponsor "The Family Tapestry Award - In Honor of Adoptive and Foster Families" and the "To Our Village Perpetual Award - In Honor of Those Who Support Adoptive and Foster Families". May these awards bring happiness to their recipients for many years to come and always remind the Irish dance community that "The most important thing in the world is family and love." - John Wooden
